

Nonwovens in North Carolina

The following companies have chosen North Carolina as their home. Make the most of your NetINC experience by visiting some of your clients and potential customers while you are in the area.

- Vescom America, manufacturers of vinyl wallcoverings and upholstery for the commercial market utilizing both wovens and nonwovens materials, is located in Henderson, NC.
- MeadWestvaco, the global packaging company with products such as AT-A-GLANCE, Five-Star and Cambridge, has a new packaging innovation center on North Carolina State University's Centennial Campus in Raleigh.
- Jacob Holm Industries, a nonwoven manufacturer, has its first U.S. manufacturing facility in Candler, North Carolina.
- LiveDo Corporation. Located in Wilson, this is the company's first facility outside of Japan.
- A.F.G. Wipes Inc., headquartered in Israel, has its first U.S. operation in Reidsville, North Carolina.
- Spuntech Industries, Inc., a nonwoven manufacturer, has its U.S. headquarters and operation facilities in Roxboro, North Carolina.
- Avgol America Inc. established its flagship Mocksville, North Carolina plant in June 2001 with three state-of-the-art 4.2-meter Reicofil 3 SMS lines to meet the growing demand of the North American market. The plant's production capacity accounts for more than 50% of Avgol's total capacity.
- Polymer Group Inc. is a global, technology-driven developer, producer and marketer of engineered materials. With the broadest range of process technologies in the nonwovens industry, PGI is a global supplier to leading consumer and industrial product manufacturers. PGI has its global headquarters in Charlotte as well as facilities in Benson and Mooreville.
- Goulston Technologies of Monroe, NC is recognized as the world leader in fiber lubricant technology for the manufacturing and processing of synthetic fibers and non-wovens.
- DuPont has the world's first plant devoted to the commercial production of polyester fiber in Kinston, North Carolina.